* The information contained in this form is correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

During the COVID-19 pandemic in England, if you are looking to organise a gathering then you will need to comply with the latest Coronavirus Regulations. You as the event organisers must prepare the COVID-19 risk assessment as part of planning your event, and then implement and manage it for the duration of your event. You must make your COVID-19 risk assessment readily available upon request by an authorised officer of the Council. As a significant public safety issue of concern, you should send a copy of your risk assessment and the checklist with any application or notification you make. We may review your risk assessment and give feed-back. The Council will not sign off your event. If you do not send a suitable COVID-19 risk assessment and checklist with your application or any element of the risk assessment or associated controls do not meet current Coronavirus law or guidance, your application and event will likely: 1) attract objections; and / or 2) be referred for review by the Director of Public Health (who may direct the closure, cessation and prevention of activities that may affect public health). This may result in your application being refused and/or the event not being allowed to go ahead. In the event of an increase in the local COVID-19 infection rates, it is possible that events that have already been agreed may be subject to suspension and / or cancellation.

I confirm that I am giving notice at least clear ten working days before the event and I am aware that the ten working days do not include the day on which the notice is received or the day of the event (Bank Holidays, public holidays and weekends are not counted as working days).

Ticking this box indicates you have read and understood the above declaration
